

HAWKERS

At Hawkers we have changed the rules of the game by creating a quality, designer product at a fair price.

Currently we are looking for three interns to join our young, funny and dynamic customer service team located in Elche.

How will your day-to-day tasks be?

- To manage public and private comments using different platforms and tools, answering them as appropriate.
- To classify comments and analyse them in weekly reports.
- To check logistics status.
- To manage shipping problem questions with different couriers.
- To communicate with different departments related to your job position (marketing, logistics, production, customer service...)

What are we looking for?

- High level of English and Italian or Portuguese or French (both oral and written).
- Good spoken and written communication skills.
- Positive and proactive attitude.
- High level of editing skills.
- Good computer skills.
- Proactive and nice personality to give the best customer service ever.
- Be able to be part of an internship (between colleague and company).

Are you ready to #JoinTheRevolution

We offer:

- An internship minimum for 3 months in a funny environment.
- Possibility to take experience in customer service department using languages.
- 200 euros gross per month to help with your transport cost.
- A schedule of 20 hours per week.

If you are interested in this position of INTERN please send your CV to: mjcastano@saldum.com